

"He makes nations great, and destroys them..." - Job 12:23

GREECE & ROME C

Clete Seyle.Tutor
402.709.3533.cell.text
432.694.0995.ext.231.office
cseyle@mcaknights.org

Course Description

Greek and Roman history and civilization; religion, philosophy, art, economics, civil government, military, and geography. approx. 1000 B.C. - 500 A.D.

Course Objectives

- gain appreciation for Greek/ Roman civilization's cultural influence on Europe/the Western World.
- Introduce, explore, and critique Greek/Roman schools of philosophical thought
- parallel historical/chronological Greek/Roman history with biblical (Old and New Testament) history
- parallel historical/chronological Greek/Roman history with characters/events recorded in classical literature (i.e. English I)
- recognize God's Sovereignty throughout history

Texts (besides Scripture)

Greece & Rome Binder (excerpts from Fuller, Plutarch, Herodotus)

Course Materials*

- pen(s), and paper
- binder or folder

bringing all materials to each class period recommended; bringing Bible required*

Grading

20% - Quizzes
20% - Papers & Presentations
20% - Exams
20% - Participation
20% - Assignments (time lines, maps, vocab, small speech and writing exercises)

Revisions are accepted up to one (1) calendar month from original due date of graded event; up to 70% of original, unearned, available points may be earned through revision. Extra Credit may be awarded if all revisions are complete.*

Tutor Availability

Parents - I both appreciate and encourage your role in your childrens' education. I would be very glad to meet with you at any point to discuss your child's progress; you are also always welcome in class.

When not in my office (in the Student Center), I am likely reading/working in the Resource Center or common area north of Resource Center (outdoors). Practice gym and weight room are other likely options; should always be available by cell/text/email.

Course Syllabus - detailed syllabus with specific dates / requirements pending

GREECE & ROME reading for Day One

Please have the passages below read before our first Greece & Rome class period:

Daniel 7 through 8:1-8, plus 8:20-22; Revelation 19:11-21*

these are likely difficult scriptures for both adults and students; general familiarization, versus full understanding, is sufficient for our First Day discussion.*

Acts 17:22-34, 20:2; Acts 28:14-22; Romans 1:7-22