

Aesop's Fables - Unit 1

1. In The Wolf and the Kid, what did the Kid have that made him feel like a grown-up Billy Goat?
2. In The Tortoise and the Ducks, how did the Tortoise fall to the ground?
3. In The Dog, the Cock and the Fox, when the Cock crowed in the woods, what did he awaken?
4. In The Boy and the Filberts, why could the boy not get his hand out of the pitcher?
5. In The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse, what did the Country Mouse realize after visiting the Town with all of its luxuries?

bleating	making sounds like goats or sheep
comrades	friends and companions
slyly	both clever and tricky
vexed	troubled or annoyed
miry	muddy or swampy
obediently	willing to obey
reedy	full of tall, hollow grasses that grow in wet areas
vanity	too much pride in one's appearance or actions
dainties	something delicious to the taste
discontented	not satisfied or pleased with

Aesop's Fables - Unit 1