

Detectives in Togas - Unit 3 (Ch. 9-13)

1. Why are the boys puzzled when they look in Rufus' room?
2. What did Rompus say the newspaper reported about happenings in Gaul?
3. Why do the boys visit Lukos?
4. After handing the chain to Julius, what does Mucius find in Lukos' room?
5. What bit of luck does Mucius have when he falls off the roof?
6. When the superintendent questions Mucius, what is revealed about Rufus?

baffled	confused or puzzled
eavesdropping	listening in on a private conversation
penitently	feeling sorrow for what you have done wrong consequences	the result of an action blackmail	threatening to reveal a secret unless the person pays money or does a favor dagger	a short, pointed weapon used for stabbing scrutinized	to study something closely inconspicuous	not noticeable
sheen	a shine on a surface
scamp	a person who is a playful troublemaker