

D'Aulaires' Book of Greek Myths - Unit 2 (Pgs. 132-154)

1. What would Heracles prefer to do rather than learn to sing and play the lyre?
2. Who did the gods welcome into Olympus to protect them from an attack by a fearful enemy?
3. What kind act did Hercules perform on his way to pick the golden apples?
4. What had Hera unknowingly helped Heracles win by having him perform the 12 labors?
5. How did Theseus find his way back out of the labyrinth?
6. What caused Icarus to fall into the sea?

atone	to make up for an error
subdue	to overpower
singe	to slightly burn
relentless	unstopping, persistent
meted	to distribute or hand out humility	not thinking over-much of oneself
downcast	sad; depressed
forded	to cross a body of water at a low point ravaged	to destroy something through violent action
labyrinth	a confusing arrangement of passages